

Moving Forward Through the Past

Family history is coming to you. National presenters, CeCe Moore and Thomas Jones, will be in Billings, Montana on September 21-23 for the Montana State Genealogical Conference (MSGGS) at the Big Horn Resort. This is an opportunity you won't want to miss.

CeCe Moore

She is the genetic genealogy consultant for PBS Finding Your Roots. Her work has also been featured on 20/20, The Dr. Oz Show, Genealogy Roadshow, Nightline, Good Morning America, Crime Watch Daily, Nancy Grace, CBS This Morning and The Doctors.

Her primary focus is promoting genetic genealogy (DNA) education and sharing positive stories about the power of genetic genealogy through the media.

Thomas W. Jones

Tom is an award-winning writer, board-certified genealogist, editor of the National Genealogical Society Quarterly, and author of the popular textbook Mastering Genealogical Proof.

Tom teaches genealogical methods with broad application across geographic areas, time periods and levels of expertise, such as "Five Ways to Prove Who Your Ancestor Was".

Consult the MSGGS website <http://montanamsgs.org/> for details on topics to be covered.

Banquet, Friday evening, September 22

Guest speaker will be Stella Fong of Billings. She is a writer and wine and food educator. Author of Historic Restaurants of Billings and Billings Food.

Registration information will be posted in July on the MSGGS website <http://montanamsgs.org/>

For questions, contact Verba Valentine at blgsmarket@aol.com

Co-host for this conference is Yellowstone Genealogy Forum of Billings. <https://yellowstonegenealogy.org/>