Heather Murphy presents Tracing Female Ancestors

[Free Beginning Genealogy Class from 6:15 to 6:45 PM]

Heather Murphy has been involved in family history research for more than 20 years. She wrote about her ancestors for high school history classes and helped extract data from ship manifests. She grew to love looking at history through the personal lens of family and she graduated from Brigham Young University with a BA degree in Family History - Genealogy. The majority of her experience is in 19th and 20th century United States research. She does client research and enjoys lecturing and teaching classes on a variety of topics. She currently volunteers as the blog editor for TCGS.
