

FRENCHTOWN RENDEVOUS OCTOBER 6, 2018

Assumption Church Parish Hall, 2098 E. Alder St., Walla Walla, WA

1-2 PM : Workshop on writing and publishing family history by Christina Dubois, retired editor of Columbia Magazine of the Washington State Historical Society.

Register online at tinyurl.com/RDVworkshop.

2 pm: Doors open to the public. Come stock your wine cellar at the silent auction, buy a raffle ticket for a Chief Joseph Pendleton blanket, or check out the history displays. Beer and wine will be available for purchase.

4 PM: Historical archaeologist Maryanne Maddoux will speak about the digitization of the Harriet D. Munnick Papers by the St. Paul Mission Historical Society, and the field school excavation of a French-Canadian homestead at Champoeg, OR.

5 pm: Tri-tip dinner catered by Marty Bray.

Tickets are $40 each, or $300 for a table for 8, available online at tinyurl.com/RDV2018. All proceeds go to the maintenance, restoration, and interpretation of the Frenchtown Historic Site, 8364 Old Highway 12, Walla Walla, WA, frenchtownwa.org.